This week, just for us

A few small things to settle in. Ideas: get library cards, read aloud, cook something together.

Can wait

A full year of curriculum — Later	A set daily schedule — Later
A school room — Later	Every subject at once — Later

The laminator can wait too.

One gentle month

One way to ease in. Cross out anything that doesn't fit your family and write in what does.

Week 1 Settle in. Library cards, read-alouds, and the paperwork.

OUR PLAN

Week 2 Add math, a little each day.

OUR PLAN

Week 3 Add reading or phonics lessons.

OUR PLAN

Week 4 Add one more subject you're excited about.

OUR PLAN

Getting to know how my child learns

You already know your child. Write a little of it down. It helps when you choose curriculum, and it's nice to look back on.

CHILD'S NAME _____ GRADE _____

What is my child curious about right now?

When in the day do they focus best?

What makes them light up when they learn?

What frustrates them, or makes them shut down?

Books and topics they love
